Strengthened Network in Korea

Blue Water Shipping has, with effect from 1 February 2012, entered into an agency cooperation -covering the Korean market - with Allport Cargo Service. Allport Cargo Service is a strong transport and logistics company with wide sea and airfreight experience.

This new cooperation strengthens Blue Water's set-up in Korea for the benefit of our many clients. They will profit by both Blue Water Shipping's and Allport Cargo Service's solid qualifications and experience with transport solutions customized to the needs of the individual clients. The clients are offered flexible, high-quality services and a high degree of liability of delivery.

Over the years, Blue Water has developed an extensive agency network in the Far East, and the company is represented with its own offices in the region, in Singapore and Malaysia among other places.
